Use of Copyrighted Materials Policy

The following information will help determine if you need to complete the Application to Use Copyrighted Materials.

You do not need permission to copy materials, and are not required to complete the application, if you wish to reproduce pages from Evan-Moor books that belong to you for use in a single classroom. Please note that in the case of home educators, “classroom,” signifies a single household.

There is no limit to the number of copies, for a single classroom, that you may make. Any format is acceptable—paper copies; files scanned into a computer; overhead transparencies; Braille conversions; or placement on a class Website, provided that student and parent access is restricted to your single classroom. Please remember that it is a violation of your user agreement to share Evan-Moor materials with colleagues for use in additional classrooms. This also applies to home educators who are prohibited from sharing materials beyond their single household.

You do need permission, and will need to complete the application, if you wish to reproduce pages for inclusion in a curriculum guide, workshop manual, parent publication, or home education associate sampler. If permission is granted, Evan-Moor will request a small fee for use of the materials. Please follow the steps below to calculate the usage fee for each book you would like to use materials from:

1. To determine the price per page:
   Divide the retail price by the number of pages in the book.
   (Example: $21.99 divided by 176 pages = 12.5 cents per page)

2. To determine the fee per title:
   Multiply the price per page by the number of pages from each book.
   (Example: 12.5 cents per page x 6 pages = 75 cents)

3. To determine the usage fee:
   Multiply the fee per title by the number of copies you would like to make.
   (Example: 75 cents x 50 copies = $37.50)

If the usage fee is less than $5.00, the fee will most likely be waived. However, you are still required to fill out the Application to Use Copyrighted Materials to obtain permission. Payment of the usage fee should be made to Evan-Moor Educational Publishers. This fee will entitle you to use the materials as you have requested on a one-time basis.

The maximum quantity for which permission will be granted is 5 pages per title, for no more than 3 titles, not to exceed 100 copies. If your request exceeds the maximum quantities, or if you intend to sell the publication in question, you may be eligible for a licensing agreement. Please note this when filling out the Application to Use Copyrighted Materials.

Permission will not be granted for:
• grade-level, schoolwide, or district-wide reproduction.
• requests that are in excess of the quantities given above.
• titles in which the copyright states that it may not be reproduced (e.g. consumables).
• requests to post materials on any Website that is widely, or publicly, accessible.
• requests for resale of the materials.
